

February 17, 2013 – 1st Sunday of Lent

Our Mission: The Catholic Church of St. Michael the Archangel exists to joyfully proclaim the presence of Jesus to the total community.

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

May the Lord bless you, your loved ones, and our entire parish family as we enter into the solemn and joyful season of Lent.

Of course, we were all stunned this week by the news of the decision of His Holiness, Pope Benedict XVI, to step down as the Bishop of Rome and Universal Pastor of the Church, as of February 28, because his strength of body and mind have in his own words, "deteriorated in me to the extent that I have had to recognize my incapacity to adequately fulfill the ministry entrusted to me." Though surprised and saddened by this news, I can't help but be filled with deep admiration, respect, love, and gratitude for this holy, humble, and courageous man who has always put the good of the Church before himself.

This is certainly new ground for us all, but we will observe this transition and momentous occasion in history by following a couple of protocols: 1) we will be reciting a special Prayer for the Church in anticipation of the Vacancy of the See of St. Peter, which we will pray at weekday and Sunday Masses, at the conclusion of the Universal Prayer, until a new Vicar of Christ is elected; 2) Archbishop Lori will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving for the Pontificate of Pope Benedict XVI at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 23, to which all parishioners are invited—I plan to concelebrate at this Mass along with many other priests, and all parishes are being encouraged to send representatives; 3) finally, during the interregnum (the period of vacancy until the election of the new pope), once the solemn conclave begins in March, the Mass prayers that we will use will come from the Votive Mass For Various Needs and Occasions: For the Election of a Pope, except on Solemnities, the Sundays of Lent or Easter, and the weekdays of Holy Week. So together let us approach Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, in a spirit of prayerful gratitude for the life and ministry of Pope Benedict XVI, and with humble confidence petition the Holy Spirit for guidance and the gift of wisdom as a new Holy Father is elected.

On another note, please allow me once more to renew the invitation to all leadership, members, and volunteers of any and all Parish Commissions, Committees, Councils, Clubs, Organizations, and Ministries (and indeed all parishioners!), to attend the Parish Ministry Retreat on Saturday, April 22, as the kickoff to our St. Michael's Centennial Anniversary. This retreat is a time to celebrate and give thanks for 100 years of ministry at St. Michael's, and a critical time to prayerfully discern the ways and directions the Holy Spirit is now calling us to continue to faithfully fulfill our mission to joyfully proclaim the presence of Jesus to the total community into the future.

Please pardon the sports cliché, but since we are all still basking in the light of the recent Super Bowl victory, I might as well use it as teaching moment: when it comes to winning the great struggle for the salvation of souls, our parish and our Church operate as a team. There are no unimportant players. Everyone is necessary. We are accountable to God and to each other; and we are saved or lost together. We are a part of this unbroken chain of Apostolic faith that has been handed on from Jesus to the Apostles, down through the generations, down to St. Michael's 100 years ago, and now to us in this very time and place. If we do not make the handoff, we place our souls and the souls of others in jeopardy. We are a team—a great team that spans space and time—each playing a position in the movement of God's plan for victory, each accountable to the other, winning (or losing) together. It is in this spirit that I ask you to participate in the Parish Ministry Retreat.

I'll end with this poem from Michel Quoist, called "A Night Prayer After an Evening Ball Game":

This evening at the stadium the night was stirring with ten thousand people. And when the lights came on and lit the field, it was filled with ten thousand voices. The referee gave the signal to begin the game. The ball flew from person to person. It passed from hand to hand, slipped along the field and flew away overhead.

Each was at his position, taking the ball in turn, passing it to the next one who was there to catch and pass again. And because each one did his part--- in the right place, because he put forth the effort required, because he knew he needed all the others, slowly but surely the ball gained ground and made the final goal.

In this world, Lord, we each have our place.

You the far sighted coach have planned it for us. You need us here, our brothers need us, and we need them. It isn't the position I hold that is important, Lord, but the strength of my presence. What difference whether I am a forward or a back, as long as I am fully what I should be?

Here, Lord, the day gone by is before me...

Did I sit too much on the sidelines, criticizing the play of others, my hands in my pockets? Did I play my part well? And when you were watching our side, did you see me there? Did I catch my teammate's pass and that of the other player at the end of the field? Did I cooperate with my team without seeking the limelight? Did I play the game to win? Did I battle to the end in spite of setbacks, blows and bruises? Was I troubled by the boos of the crowd, the mistakes of the team? Was I made proud by the crowds' applause?

I come in now to rest in the locker room, Lord.

Tomorrow, if you kick-off, I'll play a new quarter, and so each day. Grant that this game, played with all my brothers, may be what you expect of us so that when your last whistle interrupts our lives, we shall win the trophy of heaven.

I know I can count on you to be there.

Peace and prayers,

Community Life

Archbishop's Annual Appeal 2013 Love Rejoices in the Truth

A significant gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal will touch the lives of many others in a very positive way. The Annual Appeal provides critical funding for the many programs and ministries of the Archdiocese. As you review the work enabled by your contribution to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. Your gifts to our parish, to the Archdiocese, and to the work of the Church throughout the world should be given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to the mailing, please see one of the ushers at Mass and they will give you a pledge form. Completed pledge forms can be placed the collection basket. Our parish receives 25% of each dollar raised until we reach our goal of $ 53,600. After we reach goal, 50% of all over goal dollars are returned to us. This year the rebates will help us to subsidize tuition assistance in Religious Education and the School. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

Our Parish's 100th Anniversary

This September, St. Michael's will begin celebrating our parish's 100th Anniversary. Our parish has a rich history and deep spiritual connection to the community. It has been home to so many families – it's been a guide, a shelter, and roots for so many of us. It has provided a place for relationships to begin and flourish and has truly become a community that people want to join. This needs to be celebrated! We hope that you will join your fellow parishioners in volunteering to help us plan a spectacular year celebrating all the facets of St. Michael's parish. In next week's bulletin, there will be an insert asking for volunteers for various planning committees, we are looking for party-planners, trip organizers, fundraising gurus, marketing specialists, and so much more. We hope you will consider helping us plan this once in a lifetime experience. If you have questions, contact Corinna Sibiski in the parish office or Carolyn Marinari at CarolynMarinari@gmail.com.

Rites of Sending and Election

Across the entire world, Catholic bishops on this First Sunday of Lent welcome those catechumens sent by the parish to gather together with their godparents and sponsors in what is known as the Rite of Election. The Rite of Election for our catechumens is at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen at 3 pm, Sunday, Feb. 17. The Rite of Sending, held at the 11:30 am church Mass on Sunday, Feb. 17, offers the parish community, St. Michael the Archangel, an opportunity to acknowledge the spiritual progress the catechumens have made, express approval of their election or recognition, and send them forth to our archbishop with assurance of the parish's care and support. To send a catechumen to the archbishop means that a parish has discerned that the person is ready to enter the Catholic Church. In Sacred Scripture, the Book of Revelation makes reference to a "Book of Life" in which are written the names of those who have chosen to follow the Lord Jesus and be baptized. Those who are already baptized, as Catholics or in other denominations, had our names written in the Book of Life at our Baptism. In the Rite of sending, those preparing for Baptism are invited to come forward and sign a book, which we call the "Book of Elect" as a sign of their desire to be numbered among the chosen of God. The Book of Elect is then presented to the bishop at the Rite of Election.
