Sacerdocio, Diaconado y la vida religiosa: Si usted siente que Dios lo está llamando al ministerio como sacerdote, diácono, o miembro de una comunidad religiosa póngase en contacto con un sacerdote, diácono, seminarista, o llame al Director Arquidiocesano de Vocaciones, Rev. Michael A. DeAscanis, en 410-547-5426.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On this Feast of Corpus Christi, in which we celebrate the gift of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we are reminded how the body and blood of Jesus has sustained and nourished each of us in our vocations and in our earthly pilgrimage, so that we may become Mystical Body of Christ in the world.

In a special way, I'd like to acknowledge three parties who have been sustained, nourished, strengthened and transformed by the Eucharist that we celebrate here at St. Michaels. First, I'd like to congratulate the graduates of the Class of 2013 from St. Michael School. We are proud of their accomplishments and have delighted in seeing them grow physically, intellectually, academically, and emotionally. But we are most proud of their spiritual growth as disciples of Jesus Christ. In all likelihood, thanks to their academic formation here at St. Michael's, they will continue to succeed in their academic careers as they move on to high school. But what will make us truly proud is if they will continue their spiritual development as faithful, loving, Christians who in obedience to their call from God seek to spend their lives in serving Him and giving him glory wherever they go. Let's continue to pray for all of our graduates.

Next, I'd like to congratulate Deacon Angel Marrero who will be ordained to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ next Saturday, June 8, at 10:00 a.m. at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen by the laying on of hands by Archbishop William Lori. Angel's vocation to the priesthood was strengthened, nourished, and confirmed by the time he spent with us at St. Michael's. The Eucharist as celebrated and lived out in our community has had the concrete effect of helping a man to hear God calling him to lay down his life in love and service of the great Mystical Body of Christ, the Church. We should all revel in Angel's ordination to the priesthood because this parish has been an important instrumentality of grace that helped in his discernment. So, please if you can, please attend the Mass of Priesthood Ordination next Saturday at 10:00 a.m., and celebrate this great occasion for Angel, for St. Michael's, and for the Church in the Archdioceses of Baltimore and Military Services. You are all also welcome to attend his (bi-lingual) Mass of Thanksgiving here on Sunday, June 9 at 11:30.

Finally, I'd like to congratulate Dante and Olga Petrolini who on June 2nd will celebrate their 75th Wedding Anniversary! They were recognized last year as the longest married couple in the Archdiocese of Baltimore and they are parishioners of St. Michael's. On June 2nd, they will renew their marriage vows at the 11:30 a.m. Mass in front of their family and the community that has sustained their vocation to marriage for all of those years. Anyone who is married knows the hard work that it takes to make a good marriage. Moreover, it takes not only hard work, but also a lot of grace and prayer. The Petrolini's know this, and they want to celebrate their years together by giving thanks to God in the communal celebration of the Eucharist and by renewing their vows before Christ's altar of sacrificial love. It is God's faithfulness to them that has made possible their faithfulness to one another. The Sacrament of Marriage is the fruit of Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.

So happy Feast of Corpus Christi to you and to all of those folks. May the Body and Blood of Christ help us to truly become what we have received.

Peace and prayers,

Fr. Jim Sorra

Community Life

Welcome to St. Michael's! If you are visiting with us this weekend, or have been away from the Church for a while, we invite you to become an active part of our parish community. Registration forms may be found in the bulletin racks. Please fill one out and return it to the Parish Office or drop it in the collection basket. We encourage all to share fully in the life of the parish by being actively involved in our ministries and being faithful stewards of time, talent and treasure. Please prayerfully consider how God is calling you to proclaim the Good News in our parish community. If you have a change of address or phone number or are moving out of the parish, please notify the Parish Office as soon as possible. Also, when adult children turn 18, they should register under their own names as soon as possible. If you are not Roman Catholic, please know that you are most welcome. While we are unable to extend an invitation to our non-Catholic brothers and sisters to receive Holy Communion, please feel free to come forward at Communion time and ask for a blessing.

Bienvenidos a San Miguel! Los formularios de inscripción se pueden encontrar en las estanterías que se encuentran en la capilla y la Iglesia. Por favor, llene una y regrésela a la Oficina de la parroquia o colóquela en la cesta de la ofrenda. Animamos a todos a participar plenamente en la vida de la parroquia, participando activamente en nuestros ministerios y siendo administradores fieles de tiempo, talento y tesoro. Por favor, piadosamente considere cómo Dios nos está llamando a anunciar la Buena Nueva en nuestra comunidad parroquial. Si usted tiene un cambio de dirección o número de teléfono o se están moviendo fuera de la parroquia, por favor, notifique a la Oficina de la Parroquia tan pronto como sea posible. Además, cuando los hijos cumplen los 18 años, deberán registrasen con sus propios nombres tan pronto como sea posible

Service and Justice

Peace and Justice - Fortnight for Freedom:

The Fortnight for Freedom will be celebrated again this year and will take place from June 21 – the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More – to July 4, Independence Day. Last year there were many events promoting religious freedom across the country. There are many threats to religious liberty including the August 1, 2013 deadline for religious organizations to comply with the HHS mandate; potential Supreme Court rulings that could redefine marriage in June, causing serious religious liberty issues for Catholic adoption agencies and many others. The opening Mass will be held June 21, 7:00 p.m. at the Baltimore Basilica celebrated by Archbishop William Lori, and the closing mass will be held July 4, 12:00 p.m. at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C. , celebrated by Cardinal Donald Wuerl. For other activities in the Archdiocese of Baltimore see <https://www.archbalt.org/fortnightforfreedom/>

Beans and Bread Outreach

Casserole makers are needed for preparation of chicken & rice casseroles on the second Saturday of each month. Pan and recipe supplied. Volunteers are also needed to assist with the serving of the meal at Beans & Bread on June 8. Contact Marge Eick at 410-665-0760

Eucharistic Holy Hour for Freedom

On July 1 at 7 p.m. St. Michael the Archangel Church will host a part of their celebration as we hold a Eucharistic Holy Hour with benediction, pray the rosary for freedom and celebrate Mass for the Cause of Freedom.
